

Jennifer Santi, GG (GIA), CG (AGS)

Jennifer Santi is the Project Administrator and Appraiser for Gemworld International, Inc. located in Glenview, Illinois. Gemworld International, Inc. is the publisher of the GemGuide, an international industry standard for diamond and gemstone pricing. Jennifer Santi is part of the Gemworld support team.

In 2005, Jennifer attended the Gemological Institute of America resident gemology program in Carlsbad, California. In 2010, she achieved her Bachelor's Degree in Business at Robert Morris University in Chicago, Illinois. That same year she received her Certified Gemologist Certificate through the American Gem Society.

Prior Employment

Jennifer has worked several years in both a retail selling environment and wholesale B2B sales. She worked at James and Sons Fine Jewelers for five years specializing in luxury retail sales, independent jewelry appraising and estate buying. She worked for M. Geller Ltd., a diamond wholesaler, downtown Chicago as the merchandising manager. Jennifer is continually looking for ways to grow her career and challenge her creativity.

Professional Education and Industry Affiliations

Graduate Gemologist, Gemological Institute of America in California residence program (GIA), 2005.

Certified Gemologist, American Gem Society (AGS), 2010.

Certified Member of the National Association of Jewelry Appraisers (NAJA), 2016.

Accredited Senior Gemologist, Accredited Gemologists Association (AGA), 2016.